10437 W. INNOVATION DR., WAUWATOSA, WI 53226

Is your proposal responsive and effective?

Writing a government proposal takes time, careful planning and a complete understanding of requirements. It must provide credible evidence that your business understands a problem, has a comprehensive solution, has the skills and experience to do the work and can provide the solution at a competitive price.

Join us and learn what makes an effective winning proposal. All contractors and subcontractors looking to improve their proposals should attend!
