

Ana Gesell, CPA

Business Accounting Specialist

WI-CLANS

Ana graduated from the University of Wisconsin - Milwaukee with her Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and Finance in 2014 and a Master of Science in Management with a concentration in Professional Accounting in 2015. She then started her career at Deloitte, a public accounting firm, as an auditor for over 2 years.

She worked with various clients in the manufacturing industry, professional service firms, and large non-profit organizations. Ana became a licensed CPA in 2017 after gaining valuable experience. From there Ana transitioned to Hammes Company, a healthcare project management firm, as an accountant within the property management group. She provided primary accounting, financial reporting, and projections for over 20 properties.

Ana is now part of the Wisconsin Community Lending and Networking Strategy (WI-CLANS), a collaborative with the AICCW-FACC & Hmong Wisconsin Chamber of Commerce. Her passion as a CPA continues by taking on this role at AICCW-FACC/HWCC with the determination to help new and existing clients with various accounting needs as well as the financial needs within both organizations.
