

William Hughes, Partner – Husch Blackwell

Bill has extensive experience in the award, protest and litigation of competitively bid and publicly awarded contracts. He counsels federal contractors on all aspects of government contracts including the Federal Acquisition Regulations, audits, bids, changes, costs, claims, intellectual property rights, terminations and negotiations. He also has extensive arbitration and litigation experience representing clients in recovering damages or defending against claims on both private and public contracts.

As a former U.S. Government attorney, Bill is one of the few Wisconsin attorneys with the experience necessary to represent clients in matters involving federal contract law.

He is a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy (B.S.), Marquette University School of Law (J.D.), and the George Washington University Law School (L.L.M. in Government Procurement Law).

Bill also serves as the Chairman of the Wisconsin Procurement Institute (WPI)
