For additional information contact Jean Polka at jeanp@wispro.org / 414-270-3600

The Federal Government is now and will continue to spend billions of dollars on manufactured goods and related services.

The Federal government depends on manufacturers that can deliver on time, at projected cost, and meet all performance requirements. This requires an understanding of Government's challenges, priorities, regulations, and processes.

Whether you are considering entering the market, growing your Defense business or just want to hone your skills to get that competitive edge, you should attend.
