FPDS – helps to identify those buying activities that spend money in your area of interest.

Strategic Plan – are a “gap analysis.” The organization is at point A and wants to get to point B. What has to happen? The what has to happen represents actions – some internal and performed by staff and others via contract.

These plans help to identify what is important and therefore help to better understand the needs of the customer. Ultimately, this information may be useful in building themes into proposals or in preparation for meetings.

Forecasts can represent MRO or new (Strategic Plan level items). May not be maintained and do not list every item.

FBO – lists active items that have an expected value which exceeds $25,000. Where are the other purchases?
