

General Services Administration (GSA)

GSA provides centralized procurement for the federal government, offering billions of dollars' worth of products, services, and facilities that federal agencies need to serve the public.

GSA's acquisition solutions supply federal purchasers with cost-effective high-quality products and services from commercial vendors. GSA helps federal agencies build and acquire office space, products and other workspace services, and oversees the preservation of historic federal properties. Its policies covering travel, property and management practices promote efficient government operations.
