

State of Wisconsin Department of Revenue (DOR)

---

The Wisconsin Department of Revenue (DOR) administers the state's major tax laws, including the collection of individual income taxes, sales taxes, corporate income taxes and excise taxes and assists local governments in property assessment and financial management. It also administers programs that provide state financial aid to local governments and estimates state revenues and forecasts state economic activity.

To learn more in preparation for your meetings visit
<https://www.revenue.wi.gov/Pages/AboutUs/home.aspx>

What does the DOR purchase?

- Office Supplies
- IT Equipment
- Copiers
- Postage meter rentals
- Shredding services
- chairs

What Certifications are important to the DOR?

- Disadvantaged Business Enterprises (DBEs)
- Minority Owned Businesses (MBEs)
- Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise (DVBS)
- Small Businesses
- 8(a)
- Historically Underutilized Business Zones (HUBZones)
- Veteran Owned Small Businesses (VOSBs)