About the Speakers

Lieutenant Colonel Matthew A. Phelps – Commander DCMA Milwaukee MCWA

Lieutenant Colonel Matthew A. Phelps previously served with the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) Aviation in Richmond, Virginia where he was a Division Chief in the Strategic Acquisitions Directorate, helping to drive long term contract solutions for more than 1,800 major weapon systems through a $3.5B strategic acquisition portfolio. LTC Phelps has held numerous command and staff positions during his 18 years in the Army.

As a Transportation Corps officer, he served in multiple capacities with the 46th Corps Support Group at Fort Bragg, NC, where he also deployed to Nicaragua in support of Hurricane Mitch relief efforts. He followed that tour as a company commander with the 3rd Corps Support Command in both Germany and Iraq and later as the HHC Company Commander, 414th Base Support Battalion, Hanau, Germany.

LTC Phelps is a native of Tampa, Florida and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Transportation Corps through the United States Military Academy in 1996.

William Hughes, Partner– Husch Blackwell

For more than 20 years, Bill has advised and defended employers in connection with employment discrimination matters, terminations, retaliation claims, sexual harassment claims, allegations of failure to accommodate a disability and wage claims. He has represented clients in proceedings before the Equal Rights Division, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and other administrative agencies, as well as in state and federal courts. Bill is a member of Husch Blackwell's Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation team. Bill has been an adjunct professor at the University of Wisconsin School of Engineering, where he taught "Legal Aspects of Engineering" for several semesters. Prior to joining the firm, Bill was an attorney for the U.S. Air Force. He is a retired lieutenant colonel from the U.S. Air Force Reserves.

Brian Waagner, Partner– Husch Blackwell

Brian has more than 20 years of experience as a trial lawyer and commercial litigator. A member of the firm's Government Contracts team, he represents clients in the construction, energy, and health care industries.

In addition to litigating bid protest matters and complex claims and disputes, Brian conducts internal investigations and represents contractors responding to Defense Contract Audit Agency audits. Brian also advises clients on compliance issues unique to government contracts, including the Buy American Act, the Procurement Integrity Act, the Truth in Negotiations Act, the Service Contract Act, and the application of Cost Accounting

Standards, the False Claims Act, and the FAR mandatory disclosure rule

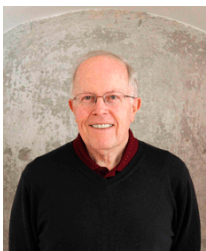

Eric Ness - WI District Director, US Small Business Administration (SBA)

Eric Ness is the District Director for the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Wisconsin District with locations in Madison and in Milwaukee. As District Director, Eric is responsible for the delivery of SBA programs throughout Wisconsin. Eric joined the SBA in 1990 as a Commercial Loan Officer where he had the opportunity to work in both processing and liquidation of loans. He has served as Finance Chief and Assistant District Director for Economic Development. In December of 2001, Eric assumed the position of Wisconsin District Director. Prior to coming to SBA, Eric worked for Impact Seven as a Business Analyst and was General Manager of Western Wisconsin Development Corporation in Northwestern Wisconsin. Eric graduated from the University of Minnesota with a Degree in Agricultural Engineering and later obtained a Master's in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas.

Phil Bail, President – Phil Bail & Associates

Philip G. Bail, Jr. is the Owner of Phil Bail & Associates, a veteran-owned small business (VOSB). Phil is a retired Air Force Contracting officer. He has also worked for more than twenty years in both the aerospace and hazardous waste disposal industries as Purchasing Manager, Manager of Major Subcontracts, Director of Government Contract Administration, and Small Business Liaison Officer (SBLO).

As a warranted contracting officer in the United States Air Force, Phil Bail negotiated with major aerospace companies, construction contractors and service providers, always getting the best price for the American taxpayer.

After retiring from the Air Force, he worked in private industry and successfully challenged poorly written solicitations and statements of work, lodged protests to the General Accountability Office (GAO), and filed and received equitable adjustments for an aerospace manufacturer and a hazardous waste disposal company approaching $12 million dollars.

Phil has dedicated himself to full-time consulting – helping both small business and large business clients improve their bottom lines whether it's implementing a compliant small business program, effectively managing awarded contracts, or interpreting contract requirements.

Emily Constantine, Associate – Husch Blackwell

Emily is a member of the Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation group at Husch Blackwell. She represents employers in a broad range of employment law and litigation matters in state and federal district and appellate courts and before administrative agencies, including the Wisconsin Equal Rights Division, National Labor Relations Board and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. She also has represented employers in labor arbitrations.

Emily has handled claims involving breach of employment contract, family and medical leave, noncompetition agreements, discrimination, harassment (including sexual harassment), retaliation, unfair labor practices, and wage and hour claims. She also advises employers on legal and practical considerations associated with reductions in force, employment and severance agreements, employee discipline, workplace investigations and drug testing, social media policies and labor relations.

Byron Franz, Special Agent – Federal Bureau of Investigation

Byron Franz is a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and has worked national security investigations for over 16 years. He currently serves as the Strategic Partnership Coordinator for the FBI's Milwaukee Division, where his job is to form partnerships with corporations, colleges, and universities to better protect intellectual property and trade secrets. Special Agent Franz has a B.A. in International Relations and Russian from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and a J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School.

Laura Grebe, Associate – Husch Blackwell

As a member of the firm's Technology, Manufacturing & Transportation team, Laura works with clients to secure protection for intellectual property assets. While her practice focuses primarily on patent prosecution, Laura also assists clients in securing and defending trademarks and copyrights.

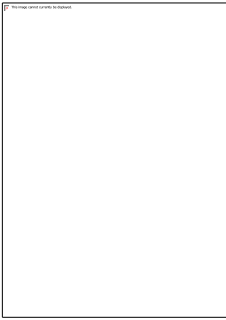

Laura is a registered patent attorney and has experience conducting and reviewing patentability and freedom to operate searches and preparing and prosecuting patent applications, both domestic and international, in a number of complicated technologies

Jason Rathsack, Supervisor – Contracting Team MCWAA, Administrative Contracting, Grants and Agreements Officer (ACO/AGO/AAO) DCMA Milwaukee MCWA
