

Anthony G. "Tony" Hutcherson: Chief, Acquisition and Material Management Division, Architect of the Capitol (AOC)

Mr. Anthony G. "Tony" Hutcherson is the Chief, Acquisition and Material Management Division at the AOC, and directs the centralized acquisition, material management and real property staff for the Architect of the Capitol. Mr. Hutcherson assumed this role in October 2011.

A Level III Certified Acquisition Professional, Mr. Hutcherson is a career contracting professional, and prior to assuming his current duties at the AOC, he spent 17 years at the White House, and was the Deputy Director for Management and Administration, Policy, Plans and Requirements Directorate, White House Military Office.

A native of Orange, Virginia, Mr. Hutcherson received a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education from Southern Illinois University, and retired from the United States Air Force as a Contracting Officer in 1999, having served his entire career in that capacity. His tours and deployments included:

- Scott AFB, Illinois
- Ramey, Puerto Rico
- Charleston AFB, South Carolina
- Thumrait, Oman
- Oporto, Portugal
- Torrejon Air Base, Spain
- White House Military Office

Mr. Hutcherson is married to the former Melissa Reynolds of Natural Bridge, Virginia and has three children and three grandchildren. A huge supporter of the Robinson Secondary School (Fairfax, Virginia) athletics boosters club, Mr. Hutcherson is also a member of the University of Virginia Athletics Foundation.