

Baly Ambegaoker, CEO & Co-Founder, CENTERPOINT, Inc.

Baly Ambegaoker is chief executive officer of CENTERPOINT Inc. Ms. Ambegaoker is responsible for strategic business planning and execution. CENTERPOINT Inc. provides cybersecurity, mobile solutions and social media analytics for the U.S. government. Prior to CENTERPOINT, Ms. Ambegaoker served as president & CEO of IDL Solutions, Inc. IDL was founded in Wisconsin in 1993. At IDL, Ms. Ambegaoker led the company in providing information technology solutions, data analytics, and systems support to numerous federal, state, and local governments, as well as over 100 commercial clients. Under Ms. Ambegaoker's leadership, IDL experienced consistent annual growth and won contracts with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of the Treasury, among many others. The company was also successfully appraised as an SEI CMMI® Level 3 and an SEI CMMI Level 4 SCAMPI B organization, one of the highest process improvement certifications in the industry. Ms. Ambegaoker's years of dedication to excellence culminated in the successful acquisition of IDL Solutions by a large defense contractor, CACI International, in December of 2012

