

Ed Silva, CEO & Co-Founder, CENTERPOINT, Inc.

Ed Silva is co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of CENTERPOINT. Mr. Silva is responsible for strategic corporate growth, the implementation of business development strategies, and delivery of solutions to clients. Prior to founding CENTERPOINT, Mr. Silva was Senior Executive for Corporate Business Development for CACI International Inc., a global $3.8 billion information solutions and services company. Mr. Silva joined CACI through the company's acquisition of IDL Solutions, where he was a partner and Senior Vice President.

Mr. Silva also served as President and Chief Executive Officer of IDL Government Solutions, a provider of information technology solutions, applications, and systems support. IDL-GS was a key business partner to IDL Solutions as it grew rapidly toward its successful acquisition by CACI in December of 2012. During his 28-year career, Mr. Silva has successfully developed and implemented growth strategies for a number of companies in the Federal Government market place.
