

Brigadier General Guy Walsh USAF (Ret.)

Brig Gen (Ret.) Guy Walsh serves as an Advisor to the Deputy Commander and Executive Director for U.S. Cyber Command, Fort Meade, Maryland. He currently leads the Commands academic and industry engagement effort. For the past 7 years, Guy served as the senior manager of Cyber Command's National Guard and Reserve Directorate, advocating for advancing policy and law to protect and defend U.S. critical infrastructure and key resources (CIKR). Mr. Walsh has developed engagement strategy and training initiatives with the National Guard, the Assistant Secretary of Defense, the Department of Homeland Security, the FBI and State/local governments. From 2012 thru 2017, he served as a deputy director for U.S. Cyber Command's Tier 1 Joint and Combined exercises, CYBER FLAG and CYBER GUARD. Mr. Walsh also served as co-founder and Deputy Director, Capabilities Development Group (CDG) which focuses on technology aspects of cyberspace operations to develop new capabilities, transition existing technologies to the operational environment and facilitate the development of training and advanced tactics, techniques, and procedures (TTPs). General Walsh graduated from the United States Air Force Academy and holds a Master's Degree in International Relations and Strategic Studies from the University of Southern California. He is a Command pilot having accumulated 4300 flight hours and flown over 100 combat missions including 79 A-10C Close Air Support missions supporting U.S. and NATO ground forces in Afghanistan. General Walsh commanded at the Squadron, Group and Wing level to include serving as the Commander of the Maryland National Guard 175th Wing from 2002 thru 2009 and being named as the first Commander of the 451st Air Expeditionary Wing, Kandahar, Afghanistan from 2009-2010. Guy serves on numerous non-profit boards including Maryland's Free-State Challenge Academy Foundation providing a second chance for at risk youth. He is currently the President, U.S. Air Force Academy Association of Graduates, Baltimore Chapter and was recently elected to serve as a Board member with the Military Cyber Professionals Military Association (MCPA) and the National Defense Industry Association (NDIA).